HELMBOLD'S GENUINE PREPARATIONS

HELMBOLD'S
HIGHLY CONCENTRATED
Compound Fluid Extract Buchu,
IS A CERTAIN, SAFE, AND EFFECTUAL REMEDY
For Diseases of the Bladder, Kidneys, Gravel, Dropsy, Weakness, Secret Diseases, Obstructions, Female Complaints, and all Diseases of the Sexual Organs, whether in MALE OR FEMALE,
from whatever cause they may have originated, and
No Matter of How Long Standing.

This popular and specific remedy is now offered to the afflicted, and guaranteed to cure all those complaints. It searches out the very roots of the disease, driving out all the diseased fluids of the body, thus removing the cause and rendering the cure

Certain and Permanent.

This medicine allays pain and inflammation, which other remedies invariably cause, and can be taken with less trouble and expense to patients. This infallible remedy has saved thousands upon thousands from the hands of

Merciless Quacks,

and from premature graves. In cases of infection, the Compound Bucha is the only article worthy of the least confidence of the afflicted in performing

SAFE CURES.

It contains no narcotic, mercury, or other injurious drug, but is a purely VEGETABLE COMPOUND. It is very agreeable to the taste, creates no perceptible odor, and may be taken by persons of either sex without hindrance from business or medical advice, as plain directions for use accompany the medicine. Reader, if you have any of the above complaints, do not neglect them.

Delays are Dangerous.

With this medicine you can cure yourself, and thus prevent all exposure.

Truth must and will prevail.

This medicine speedily and effectually cures the most virulent form of secret diseases, and eradicates every particle of infectious matter from the patient to a perfect state of Health and Purity—And as a medicine which must benefit everybody, from the simply delicate to the confined and despairing invalid, no equal is to be found, it acting both as a Cure and Preventive of any of the above ailments.

HELMBOLD'S
HIGHLY CONCENTRATED
Compound Fluid Extract Sarsaparilla,
—FOR—

Purifying the Blood, removing all diseases arising from Excess of Mercury, exposure and imprudence in life, chronic constitutional disease arising from an impure state of the Blood, and the only reliable and effectual known remedy for the cure of Scrofula, Salt Rheum, Scald head, Ulcerations of the Throat and Legs, Pains and Swellings of the Bones, Tetter, Pimples on the Face, and all scaly Eruptions of the Skin.

It is gratifying to the proprietor of these medicines to be able to state that it is now nearly three years since they were first introduced, during which time they have been extensively used in various parts of the United States, and have given to patient and practitioner the highest degree of satisfaction in the various cases in which they have been employed; whether in town, country, hospital, or private practice, they have invariably given the most decided and unequivocal satisfaction, and produced the most salutary and beneficial effects. Numerous letters have been received from the most distinguished physicians in the country, and from the professors of several medical colleges, recommending in the highest terms the value of these medicines and their superiority over all other preparations for such complaints as the proprietor recommends. Numerous preparations of Sarsaparilla and Bucha, and various modes of preparing them have been given, all of which of course will differ according to the mode of preparation which each individual may adopt.

These medicines require considerable care in the preparation, and the employment of different menstrua in successive operation to take up the extractive matters; and in consequence, are most frequently improperly made, and not unfrequently much impaired, if not rendered totally inert, by the injudicious and unskillful management of those unacquainted with pharmaceutical preparations. It is, therefore, of the highest consideration and importance to the public, and to the faculty, that there should be standard preparations of uniform strength and possessing the most advantages. To effect this, and obviate the evil alluded to, I have made a number of experiments to ascertain the most effectual mode of extracting the virtues of the Sarsaparilla and the Bucha, and to discover the most eligible form for their exhibition. The experiments have resulted most favorably, and it is with much pleasure I now offer to the public and the faculty my Compound Fluid Extracts, which contain all the virtues of the articles they are represented to be made from in a highly concentrated form, and are the most active preparations which can be made. Two table spoonfulls of the Extract Sarsaparilla added to a pint of water is equal to the Lisbon diet drink, and one bottle fully equals in strength one gallon of Syrup Sarsaparilla or decoction as usually made.

—PRICES—
Fluid Extract Buchu, $1 per bottle, or 6 for $5
" " Sarsaparilla, " "

Certificates of cures and recommendations from distinguished professors and physicians, will accompany each preparation. Prepared and sold by

MR. SMITH'S ADVENTURE.

BY FRANCIS A. DURIVAGE.

On a delightful summer morning, a handsome young man of twenty-two, or thereabouts, fashionably attired, and with the pensive, melancholy air, which well became his dark eyes and wavy locks, and which marked him as a poet of the Byron school, a rejected lover, or an unlucky gamester, or a briefless attorney, or whatsoever you will, for melancholy has many causes, and wraps her dark mantle round many shoulders in this weary world of ours; a handsome, melancholy young man, we say, interesting enough to flatter the hearts of a whole boarding school, was strolling along a pleasant lane in one of the rural counties of England. He had come down by the London coach, and, while waiting for a conveyance to take him across the country to the place of his destination, thought to amuse himself by a brief ramble. He paused now and then to gather a fragrant rose or a bunch of hawthorn from a hedgerow; but he tossed away the flowers as carelessly as he culled them.

"Heigho!" he murmured to himself. "It remains to be seen what will be the upshot of this visit to my rich old bachelor uncle, my only surviving relative. Is it at all likely the whimsical old humorist, whom I have not seen since childhood, will suit me, or that I shall suit him? A retired man of business, how can I expect that he will fancy such a good-for-nothing fellow, who never did any business in his whole life?—a poet whose book didn't sell; a dramatist, whose play was a failure; a litterateur, who found no favor with the publishers! Will he pay my debts, and make me his heir? My whole London life has been a failure; and the only agreeable episode was my trip to Bath. Poor Sophy Ruggles! I believed she loved me sincerely. But I acted honorably. When I found that my heart was engaged, I tore myself away without an explanation. For what had I to offer her? I a bankrupt in hope and purse!"

As he mused thus mournfully, he came in sight of a handsome villa, facing a broad, smooth shaven lawn, and backed by a pretty garden and park of ornamental trees. As he paused to survey it with the pleased eye of a poet, a stout servant in spruce livery advanced along the road, and after glancing at him sharply, touched his hat, and said respectfully, "Mr. Smith?"

"That's my name."

"Thank ye—thank ye, sir," said the fellow, grinning from ear to ear; and, turning his head, he ran on and disappeared.

"Is that fellow crazy?"

A moment afterwards a dozen or more farmer's boys, armed with muskets, appeared in the road before him, and setting up a loud hurrah, discharged their weapons simultaneously, and then disappeared in the smoke.

"What the deuce is to pay here?" thought Smith. "Is this election day?—or is that a lunatic asylum, and those fellows madmen?"

He walked on, curious to learn the cause of the commotion. As he advanced he saw a white flag flying on the lawn, and he heard the distant sound of music. As he approached nearer to the village, a gate in the thick hedgerow opened, and a portly gentleman in black, with a spotless white waistcoat, very rosy gills, and a bunch of flowers in his button hole, suddenly appeared with both hands extended.

"My dear boy," said he, "welcome! You are before your time! but so much the better. It speaks well for your gallantry. But where is your uncle?"

"I havn't seen him yet, sir; and I hear he's unwell."

"Well, well," said the old gentleman, "I hardly expected him. You don't look quite well yourself—a little pale, nervous. No matter; it will soon be over—hey? Well, you don't look a bit like the old man; I expected to find you shorter and stouter. I thought Sophy must have been mistaken in your appearance."

"Sophy!" exclaimed Smith; more and more bewildered.

"Ay, ay, my boy! She told me all—how she met you at Bath and loved you, and how you suddenly disappeared. You had no idea of engaging into an engagement for life without seeing your intended, and faith I don't blame you for it. When I was of your age, I wouldn't have married a girl to please a thousand uncles, till I had satisfied myself. But you never let your uncle know about your trip to Bath. Sly dog! But come along."

So saying, the officious old gentleman seized the arm of the bewildered Smith—who found it impossible to believe that he was awake—and dragged him across the lawn, and ushered him into a drawing-room, where a fat woman in a crimson turban rushed into his arms, and saluted him on both cheeks, and then burst into a passionate fit of tears.

"O, dear, dear," said she, "this is the happiest and saddest day of my life! I am sure you are a very nice young man, and will take the best care of my daughter; and your uncle's a dear creature. But Sophy is my all—excuse a mother's feelings, Mr. Smith—an only child! O! dear."

"Mrs. Ruggles, compose yourself," said the old gentleman.

"Sophy Ruggles, is really the girl, then after all," thought Smith. "My uncle is certainly an odder man than ever the world has given him credit for—to manage such a surprise for me, and leave me to tumble into happiness, without the least suspicion of the felicity before me!"

But his meditations were cut short by the entrance of the fair Sophy, attired in virgin white, and looking lovely as an angel. Mr. and Mrs. Ruggles led her forward, and then discreetly left the room. As she seemed overcome by emotion, Smith caught her in his arms and her head reclined upon his shoulder.

"My dear angel!" cried Smith. "Tell me if I owe this happiness to your own free will, and not to your filial obedience?"

"Can you ask me, William?" replied the bride, blushing and looking up into his face.

Smith pressed the lips of his adored.

"What a strange courtship ours had been," said Smith, "carried on in the language of the eyes alone."

"Yours were so expressive!" said Sophy. "Do you remember Bath?"

"Can I ever forget the pump room?" cried the lover.

"How I trembled when I handed you your glass!"

"How I thrilled when I drank it!"

"And the ball at the assembly rooms!" suggested Smith.

"And the waltz and the polkas!" replied the bride.

"Decidedly we were formed for each other."

"Sophy!" cried the voice of the maternal parent.

"Coming, mother!—excuse me, dearest!" cried the bride; tearing herself from her lover's arms, she tripped out of the room.

"Of course, this is a dream!" said Smith. "But it is very pleasant while it lasts."

"For you, sir," said the livery servant Smith had met in the lane, entering and presenting a package and a letter on a silver salver. Smith dismissed the man, opened the letter, and read:

Cheap & Convenient Building.
Door, Sash and Blind Factory.
A. DUNBAR
HAS been very successful in completing several contracts for Door Frames, Doors, Window Frames and Sashes, and Blinds, for good dwelling-houses and other buildings to be erected in this city, the coming season. He has excellent workmen in his employ, and has superior stock, so that he is now able to supply to those about to build the best articles of Door Frames, Window Frames, Sashes, and Blinds, made to any dimensions and of superior quality, either for a whole building or for a less quantity. The trouble and expense of building is very much lessened by having these articles made separately, so that the carpenters have only to put them in their place in the structure.
This business has now become so well systemized that only a small margin is left in knowing beforehand the cost of a dwelling-house, while the work is of a uniform excellent quality.
Any one interested can examine specimens of the work at the factory, near the Rose Place, or at the store of M. S. Jackson, on Exchange st., and at either place any article may be obtained or large quantities ordered.
Mr. Dunbar is also prepared to furnish Window Blinds ready painted, and will hang them at the shortest notice.
By long experience, and by determined perseverance, the subscriber is now enabled to suit his customers, both in quality and price, and so well organized is the business that no man should now think of building in the old and slow and imperfect methods.

[Copy of a Letter.]
BALTIMORE, Jan. 8, 1856.
Messrs. C. & J. Marshall—Gentlemen: At the request of your Agent in Baltimore, in regard to our opinion and experience of your copper coated spike, we, without hesitation, say we believe them the best substitute for copper yet introduced, and better fastening for ships, inasmuch as you have the strength of iron with the preservative qualities of copper.
We have used some of your Spikes in old vessels as a substitute for copper, and have had occasion to draw them out a year afterwards, and found them with the coating as firm as when they were driven, and with no appearance of oxidation.
Very respectfully yours,
(Signed) JOHN D. PARDY & BRO.

CHICKERING PIANOS.
WE are still the only authorized agents for these justly celebrated instruments in Bangor.
We are also agents for George Hewes excellent Pianos, which will compare favorably with any other make in the market, in quality or price.
Persons about purchasing will please examine them. We might give an account of Medals and Diplomas at Fairs, and certificates of eminent Professors in their praise, but consider it unnecessary. Those interested in such matters can examine for themselves.
Also, to close them off, a few of Brown & Allen's Pianos, at cost.

Sewing Machines.
To Clothiers, Tailors, &c.
NOW IS THE TIME, during the dull season, and before the hurry of business, to introduce the Sewing Machines. An investment of $125 in a Sewing Machine will procure more clear profit than a much larger sum invested in any other way. Having settled all suits against our Machines, there is not a shadow of claim against them. The Excelsior and Dorcas machines, both infringing our patent, we have prosecuted in the United States Court, having jury trials in separate Courts, and we have come out triumphantly. Next the Wheeler & Wilson, and the Grover & Baker, are expected to come off this month. We therefore caution the public not to purchase or use any of the infringing Machines, if they desire to escape litigation, for we shall claim our rights. I. M. SINGER & CO.

Sewing Machines.
The great and peculiar advantage of Singer's Sewing Machine is this:
One Machine will perform every kind of work perfectly by simply changing the Needle and Thread; the machines are simple in their operation, strong, durable, and not liable to get out of order.
All who wish to purchase, and the public in general, are invited to call at No. 41 Broad street, Bangor. E. W. HANSON, Agent.

Skowhegan—David Ridder, B. W. Norris, Charles C. Emery.

The Nominating Committee reported the following gentlemen as a Congressional Committee, and they were elected unanimously, Samuel P. Strickland of Bangor, Abel W. Chapin of Newport, Lyndon Oak of Garland, Wm B Snow of Madison, and Calvin S Dority of Dover.

Voted That said Committee have power to fill all vacancies that may occur in their board.

The following Delegates to the National Convention were elected by acclamation:

Joseph Bartlett of Bangor,
John H Rice of Monson,
W M E Brown of Solon.

Substitutes, Thomas Tash of Hampden, Thomas S. Pullen of Dover, and B. W. Norris of Skowhegan.

The Committee on Resolutions reported the following, which were unanimously accepted:

Resolved, That while we admit that the General Government has no constitutional power to interfere with slavery in the several States, and ought always to abstain from invading State rights, we demand and shall attempt to secure the repeal of all laws which allow of the introduction of slavery into Territories once consecrated to freedom, and believe it is a duty which this generation owes to Heaven and to the human race to preserve the vast country embraced in the Territories of the United States from the physical and moral curse of slavery, and as a field for the future development of the institutions of freedom.

Second. We will support by every lawful means our brethren in Kansas in their constitutional and manly resistance to the usurped authority of their lawless invaders, and will give the full weight of our political power in favor of the immediate admission of Kansas to the Union as a free, sovereign, independent State.

Third. Believing that the present National Administration has shown itself to be weak and faithless, and that its continuance in power is identified with progress of Slave Power to National supremacy, with exclusion of Freedom from the Territories, and with increasing civil discord, it is a leading purpose of our organization to resist and overthrow it.

Resolved, That the first characteristic of civilization is respect for Courts of Justice, and that the course of the present State Administration and th[illegible] at Leg[illegible]are in refusing to take the c[illegible] of the S[illegible] Judicial Court upon the [illegible]ents of [illegible] constitution, and proceedin[illegible]ance of [illegible] Judicial opinion of a portion [illegible] at Cour[illegible] take forcible possession of [illegible], deser[illegible] the most severe condemnat[illegible] and that [illegible] attempt to subdue the Court, [illegible] to [illegible] their own purposes by the remo[illegible] one of its Judges, for no other real caus[illegible] that of his having honestly expressed an o[illegible] against [illegible], was the most daring and [illegible] dangerous act of tyranny ever perpetrat[illegible] under a government of laws.

Resolved, That [illegible] the whole policy of the present State Ad[illegible] has been narrow in its character [illegible] disastrous in its results, and that the inte[illegible] of the people demand an immediate and [illegible] overthrow of that corrupt dynasty.

Resolved, That [illegible] the course pursued by our able, faithful [illegible] earliest Representative, Hon. Israel Washbu[illegible], particularly his indomitable energy in [illegible] of the rights of the North entitle him to [illegible] renewed confidence of his constituents, a[illegible] to the grateful recollection of the lovers o[illegible]dom in the State and nation.

Voted, To re[illegible] Republican papers to copy proceedings.

Voted, That the thanks of the Committee be presented to the [illegible]ety for the use of the House.

Adj.

A young man [illegible] who was convicted of bigamy at Newburyport [illegible] spring, upon serving out his term of pun[illegible]ent was met at the railroad station by his [illegible] wife, who took him to's clothing store, gave him a new rig, then presented to him $300 she had earned since he deserted her, and they departed together for their former home in New Hampshire. If he isn't faithful to her for the rest of his life, he ought not to live for[illegible]. It is only the women that furnishes such instances of forgiving love.

The weather for the past few days has been pleasant and warm, and our streets are exceedingly dusty, except where kept in subjection by the sprinklers. We have not yet had the customary spring rains, and although the ground is now in pretty good condition for ploughing and planting, it will soon become too dry for vegetation unless rain is forthcoming.

We understand that fires are doing some damage in the woods in Carmel and vicinity.

The Massachusetts [illegible].

The following are the proceedings of the Anti-Fillmore section of the party after they had bolted from the State Council on the 6th inst.

The members of the Council who bolted from its meeting, as above stated, returned to the Adams House, where they assembled in large force, and proceeded at once to an organization.

Wilder S Thurston, Esq of Lawrence, was called to the chair, and Messrs. Pott of Dartmouth and Denny of Worcester chosen Secretaries. Eloquent and earnest remarks were made by a number of delegates, and the following resolution was unanimously adopted and signed by all the delegates present:—

RESOLUTION.

We, the undersigned, Delegates to the State Council of the American Party of Massachusetts, met for consultation, being opposed to the nomination of Millard Fillmore and Andrew Jackson Donelson, hereby repudiate said nominations; we adhere to the principles of the Springfield platform, and we deem it expedient to take the necessary steps to secure a representation of the American party of Massachusetts in the American National Convention, which is to assemble in New York on the 12th day of June next.

Two delegates at large were then appointed to represent this branch of the party in the National Council at New York.

A committee was appointed to prepare an address to the Americans of Massachusetts, and to report a State Central Committee, preparatory to the calling of a State Convention at an early day, and a thorough organization of the State.

The following gentlemen were then appointed as a State Committee for the campaign:—

L. C. BOYNTON, of Uxbridge.
A. L. ROGERS, of Worcester.
B. L. BATCHELDER, of Sutton.
C. A. FRENCH, of Stoughton.
SAMUEL NEAL, of Boston.

with power to add to their number.

District Conventions were voted to be held on the 29th of the present month, and the meeting adjourned.

This meeting was earnest and enthusiastic, unanimous to the utmost extent, and the members expressed a high degree of confidence as to being sustained by the large and influential party they represent. Their address to the people will soon be published.

Col. Fremont at the West.

We take the following from a recent article on the Presidency, written to the Cleveland, Ohio, Herald, by one whose opinions, we are assured has great weight with the old Anti-Slavery men. It shows that that party, so often complained of for impracticability, are ready to meet the "Anti Nebraska" men who are not technically "abolitionists" more than half way, and to accept of what can be done for freedom:

MESSRS EDITORS:—What, in the coming Presidential contest, is the grand object to be aimed at by those on the Anti-Nebraska side? I take that object to be, to overthrow the present slavery-propagandist Administration, and place the National Government in the hands of men who will keep slavery out of all territory from which it was formally excluded by the Missouri Compromise. That, I take it, will be the object of the contest.

Such a platform, I know, must needs seem a narrow thing, if measured by the yard stick of the old Liberty party, or even by that of the late Free-Soil organization, and scarcely more than a mote if contrasted with the magnificent structure upon which the small Abolitionist party has planted itself. But, can a platform broader than a simple Anti-Nebraska one, be put through, in the coming contest? That is the important "practical question" in the premises.

Could I have my own way, no man should fill the National Presidentship who is less broadly Anti-Slavery, or less radical in his theory of the functions of civil government, than is Gerrit Smith himself. But, I found, sometime ago, that the "sovereign people" had pretty much resolved, very unfortunately for themselves, doubtless, that I should not have my way in these things.

I am not at all surprised, that the Herald and so many other sagacious papers, should already have expressed a strong preference for Col JOHN C. FREMONT, as the Anti Nebraska Presidential Candidate in the coming election. I can but believe him—and I think I have not been an inattentive observer of "the signs of the times"—to be "the most available man" whose name has yet been mentioned in connection with that responsible position. And having said that, I must add a word to prevent serious misinterpretation of my estimate of that distinguished individual. For I am not at all unaware, that even "the most available man" in an election, may be, nay, often is, the man, simply, who will "run best" in such election, and that a man may run best in an election only because he is the lightest of those from whom it was necessary to select a candidate. But John C. Fremont is a rare exception to the race of "available men." For, he is a man of talent, of science, of culture, of wide information, of large experience of the world, of quick sympathies with whatever is generous, noble, free, in our institutions, who has done his country some service, and who, of that scarcest of all commodities among public men, "back-bone," possesses, with his singular suavity of manners, more than has been found in the Presidential chair since its memorable occupancy by the brave old hero of the Hermitage. Let me say that I am glad to know, also, that he is a man who need never be suspected of "signing what he does not write," certainly never of signing what he could not have written. I hardly know which the more to admire, the beauty of the expression, or the excellence of the sentiment, of that letter of his to Gov Robinson, which incidentally got into the papers. And I do believe it "an excellent thing" in one who is even so much as talked of for the Presidency of a people so intelligent as ours, that he produces, "regards the rights of the Queen's English," as well as seeks to secure those of the American people. We have had more than one President who did neither.

I am pleased, that in pressing your Presidential preference, you have not disparaged the merits of other distinguished gentlemen who have been named as worthy, each, to bear our standard aloft in the battle which now approaches. In truth, the worst that can be justly said of some of the latter, would be peculiarly creditable to them as Anti Slavery men.

IOWA ENTERTAINMENTS.—The following notice of the opening of the "Red Barn" is from an Iowa paper.

First Night of the dancing goat, who goes through the intricacies of the cotillion like a fellow critter. AFFAIRS OF CENTRAL AMERICA. The Washington correspondent of the New York Tribune telegraphs on Monday evening: There was no further action in the Cabinet to-day upon the recognition of Walker's government, or the reception of Minister Vijil. The question stands upon its adjourned basis at the meeting last Thursday, when the majority voted affirmatively, and subsequently to which the President authorized Mr Heiss to bring the new Minister here. Indeed, it is understood that matters had progressed so far that Padre Vijil's presentation speech was prepared, and the points either had been or would be submitted to the President for the arrangement of a reply.

It may now be assumed for certain, that if Mr Pierce adheres to his recent invitation, Walker will be recognized, despite any disagreement in the Cabinet upon the policy of the act. There are some manifestations to-day of a change of inclination at the White House from misgivings in other quarters. The feeling may be superseded to-morrow. It was a desire of the government to have sent out an agent by steamer to-day, to investigate the Panama affray, but a suitable person had not been found. One will go at the next opportunity. Despatches will leave here, directed to Mr Bowlin, U. S. Minister to Bogota, instructing him to proceed immediately to the spot and institute an official inquiry.

Gen. Molina, Minister from Costa Rica, has replied to the communication concerning the massacre at Virgin Bay, saying that he will make it the subject of a special despatch. The truth is, he has no other intelligence on the subject than that which came through Walker's camp, having received no direct correspondence from his own government.

The correspondent of the Herald telegraphs: The Cabinet, I understand, were called together at an early hour this morning, and had a very protracted and excited session. The subject before them was Central America, or rather whether the Administration are ready to recognize Gen. Walker's government, and receive its Minister Padre Vijil, who arrived here this morning. Marcy and Cushing opposed its recognition, for the present, until something could be ascertained, while Pierce, Davis, and other members, were for immediate recognition and action. Nothing definite is known as yet, but it is generally believed that Marcy will be overruled.

THE BAY ISLANDS TO BE RESTORED TO HONDURAS.—The following paragraph appears in Lloyd's Weekly Newspaper of April 13th:

By an order in council, in the year 1852 the subjects of her British Majesty were authorized to form settlements in the previously uninhabited islands on the coast of Mosquito known as the Bay Island. In the discussion which arose between the cabinets on the Clayton Bulwer treaty, one of the most important questions was, whether the Bay Islands were dependencies of the Mosquito territory and therefore subject to the protection which the British government claimed the right to exercise in that quarter of the world. To remove all cause of further uneasiness and discussion between the governments, we understand that the order in council authorizing British subjects to form colonies in those islands has just been cancelled.

POWDER MILL EXPLOSION.—An explosion of the mixing mill at Gorham on Tuesday, was caused by the carelessness of Mr Allen, who lost his life. He was engaged in cleaning the stones preparatory to grinding a new batch of powder. A portion of the material always adheres to the stones, and Allen had been frequently cautioned to use nothing but wood in knocking it off. On this occasion he used a hammer, and an explosion was the result.—Fortunately all the powder with the exception of six kegs, had been removed from the building.

FIRE. We learn that a large two story building, situated at Mill Cove, Robinston, recently occupied by Amasiah Nash Esq for a store in the lower part, and in the upper part for a sail and rigging loft, was entirely destroyed by fire on Thursday night last, with all its contents, amounting to several hundred dollars in value.—Machias Union.

ARRIVAL OF THE

AMERICA,

AT HALIFAX.

Steamship America sailed from Liverpool at noon, Saturday the 26th of April, and arrived at Halifax Thursday May 8th, at 11 o'clock A. M. Hermann sailed from Southampton Wednesday. The new Canadian Mail steamer North America sailed from Liverpool Wednesday the 23d, with 159 passengers, and a large cargo for Quebec and Montreal.

The City of Baltimore sailed from Liverpool at noon the same day, for Philadelphia with 13 passengers and 150 tons of cargo.

The Atlantic arrived at Liverpool Wednesday 23d at 1.45 P. M.

The London Morning Star, an organ of the Manchester party says: We are told that at the meeting of the Cabinet on Tuesday 22d at which Lord Clarendon was present for the first time since his return from Paris, the answer to the U. S. was agreed on upon some points connected with the Central American question. The British Government are prepared to give way but they will not recall Mr. Crampton and they are prepared to communicate to the United States Government that they are unanimous in the determination to continue him in his present position as British Minister at Washington.

The Treaty of Peace.

The London Daily News has succeeded in obtaining a copy of the text of the treaty of peace document, and it is considered authentic. It contains 34 articles.

The first restores perpetual friendship between France, Britain, Sardinia, Turkey and Russia.

2d, All Territories conquered or occupied during the war shall be reciprocally evacuated as soon as possible.

3d, Russia restores to Turkey Kars and all other parts of the Ottoman Territory.

4. The Allies restore to Russia the towns and ports of Sebastopol, Balaklava, Kamiesch, Eupatoria and Kertsch.

Articles 5th 6th 7th and 8th are wanting.

9. The Sultan communicates to the powers his firman granting equality to christians which the contracting powers much approve of—but divest themselves of all right thereby to interfere in the internal administration of the Ottoman Empire.

10. The convention of July 13th, 1841 closing the Bosphorus and Dardanelles is re-affirmed.

11. The Black Sea is neutralized and forever forbidden to all ships of war of every power adjoining or distant, with the exceptions specified in articles 14th and 19th.

12. Trade shall be free in the Black Sea waters and the ports subject only to Police regulations, and Russia, Turkey admit consuls to all its ports.

13. The sea being neutralized strong holds become useless, consequently Turkey and Russia agree neither to construct nor preserve any military, maritime arsenal on that coast.

14. A convention regulating the force of ships for coast service, is concluded individually between Turkey and Russia, but is appended to this treaty and cannot be altered without general assent.

15. An act of the Congress of Vienna relative to river navigation is applied to the Danube and its mouths and its freedom becomes part of the public law of Europe.

16. To carry article 15th into effect France, Austria, Britain, Prussia, Russia, Sardinia and Turkey appoint each a delegate to put the river in a navigable state from Isatcha to sea.

17. Austria, Bavaria, Turkey and Wurtemburg add each a delegate to the principalities commission, to form a permanent commission, which shall keep the river navigable and superintend its police.

18. The first named general commission will be dissolved in two years, and the permanent commission take its place.

19. Each of the contracting powers may station two small ships at the mouth of the Danube.

20. Russia assents to rectification of Bessarabian frontier, the new frontier starts from the Black Sea, one mile East of Lake Bourna Sola, to the Akerman road and along which to the Valley of Trafan, passing south of Belgrade, re-ascends the river Yalpuck to Saratsika, and terminates at Kakamori on the river Pruth. Elsewhere is unchanged.

21. This ceded territory is annexed to Moldavia.

22. Moldavia and Wallachia continue under the suzerainty of Turkey, with the guarantee of all contracting powers, but no power shall claim individual right of interference.

23. The Porte guarantees a continuance to said principalities of freedom of religion and commerce. Contracting powers to appoint a commission to meet at once at Bucharest to report on the condition and wants of the principalities.

24. The Porte will immediately convoke a Divan in each principality to learn the wishes of the people as to definite organization.

25. Minutes thereof shall be sent to Paris, where a constitution shall be framed which the Porte shall promulgate.

26. The principalities shall maintain a militia and may construct works of defence approved by the Porte.

27. If the internal tranquility of the principalities be disturbed, the Porte must consult the contracting powers, and cannot employ armed intervention without their assent.

28. Servia continues a dependency of the Porte under the Powers guarantee and retains its national administration and freedom of religion and trade.

29. Right of garrison in Servia reserved to the Porte, but no armed intervention permitted without consent of the Powers.

30. Russia and Turkey to retain their possessions in Asia, precisely as before the war, but the frontiers shall be marked out by survey.

31. The evacuation of Turkey by the Allied and Austrian forces shall take place as soon as convenient, and the time and manner of such evacuation shall be subject to private arrangement between each of the powers and Turkey.

32. Until new arrangements be made, trade is to go on as before the war.

33. A Convention—contents secret—concluded between France, England and Russia respecting the Aland Islands shall be appended to this treaty.

34. Ratifications shall be exchanged at Paris within four weeks.

Great Britain.

The event exciting the most attention was the grand review of the fleet on the 23d. The papers overflow with the details. A hundred thousand spectators were present, on land and sea. The fleet, numbering 240 ships of war, big and little, all steamers but two, and comprising 34,000 horse power, carrying 3000 [illegible], extended 12 miles along the waters east and west, across Spithead. The fleet formed four squadrons, and performed various manœuvres for the edification of the Queen. It afterwards made a sham attack upon Portsmouth castle, and concluded by illuminating all the ships with colored lights.

The London Sun published the treaty of peace with a mourning border, and heads an editorial respecting the fleet with the caption, "Our glory and our shame"—exciting thereby much indignation among its contemporaries.

In Parliament, government has sustained yet another defeat, being outvoted by 28 majority in favor of open competition for civil appointments. Lord Clarendon laid on the table of the Lords, and Palmerston on that of the Commons, the cor-

17. Austria, Bavaria, Turkey and Wurtemburg add each a delegate to the principalities commission, to form a permanent commission, which shall keep the river navigable and superintend its police.

18. The first named general commission will be dissolved in two years, and the permanent commission take its place.

19. Each of the contracting powers may station two small ships at the mouth of the Danube.

20. Russia assents to rectification of Bessarabia frontier; the new frontier starts from the Black Sea, one mile East of Lake Bourna Sea to the Akerman road, and along which to the Valley of Trafan, passing south of Belgrade, re-ascends the river Yalpuck to Saratsika, and terminates at Kakamori on the river Pruth. Elsewhere is unchanged.

21. This ceded territory is annexed to Moldavia.

22. Moldavia and Wallachia continue under the suzeralnty of Turkey, with the guarantee of all contracting powers, but no power shall have an individual right of interference.

23 The Porte guarantees a continuance to said principalities of freedom of religion and commerce. Contracting powers to appoint a commission to meet at once at Bucharest, to report on the condition and wants of the principalities.

24 The Porte will immediately convoke a Divan in each principality, to learn the wishes of the people as to definite organization.

25 Minutes thereof shall be sent to Paris, where a constitution shall be framed which the Porte shall promulgate.

26 The principalities shall maintain a militia, and may construct works of defence approved by the Porte.

27 If the internal tranquility of the principalities be disturbed, the Porte must consult the contracting powers, and cannot employ armed intervention without their assent.

28 Servia continues a dependency of the Porte under the Powers' guarantee, and retains its national administration and freedom of religion and trade.

29 Right of garrison in Servia reserved to the Porte, but no armed intervention permitted without consent of the Powers.

30. Russia and Turkey to retain their possessions in Asia, precisely as before the war, but the frontiers shall be marked out by survey.

31 The evacuation of Turkey by the Allied and Austrian forces shall take place as soon as convenient, and the time and manner of such evacuation shall be subject to private arrangement between each of the powers and Turkey.

32 Until new arrangements be made, trade is to go on as before the war.

33 A Convention—contents [illegible] concluded between France, England and Russia respecting the Aland Islands, shall be appended to this treaty.

34 Ratifications shall be exchanged at Paris within four weeks.

Great Britain.

The event exciting the most attention was the grand review of the fleet on the 23d. The papers overflow with the details. A hundred thousand spectators were present, on land [illegible]. The fleet, numbering 240 ships of war [illegible] and little, all steamers but two, and comprising [illegible] 1,000 horse power, carrying 3000 batteries, extended 12 miles along the waters east and west, [illegible] Spithead. The fleet formed four squadrons, [illegible] performed various manoeuvres for the [illegible] of the Queen. It afterwards made a sham attack upon Portsmouth castle, and concluded by illuminating all the ships with colored lights.

The London Sun published the [illegible] of peace with a mourning border, and headed [illegible] editorial respecting the fleet with the caption "Our glory and our shame!"—exciting therein much indignation among its contemporaries.

In Parliament, government has [illegible] another defeat, being outvoted by [illegible] majority in favor of open competition for civil [illegible].

Lord Clarendon laid on the table [illegible] Lords, and Palmerston on that of the Commons, the [illegible] respondence relating to Central America, and said that the paper relating [illegible] to the enlistment case would be ready [illegible] days.

Lord Lyndhurst gave notice of motion on the condition of Italy, and Lord Malmesbury of a vote of censure on government for the fall of Kars.

Ship Orion, of Liverpool, saw on April 6, lat. 42, lon. 38, a large amber [illegible] drifting about, which had been some time in the water.— The question was raised whether they might not have belonged to the P[illegible].

Prussia.

An Imperial decree orders a further reduction of the army.

It is rumored that Lord Cowley will be British minister at St Petersburg, and Lord Stanhope succeed him at Paris, as ambassador to Russia at the Czar's coronation.

Turkey.

The French have evacuated Kamiesh. The French and Sardinians are already re-embarking from the Crimea.

Russia.

Prince Gortschakoff, from Vienna, succeeds Nesselrode as Minister. Several other diplomatic changes have occurred.

The army was being reduced. Cronstadt is expected to be free from ice by the 13th to 20th May, and Riga by April 25th.

Persia.

The difficulty with England is in the way of settlement. Accounts from Teheran say that the Americans are endeavoring to procure a treaty of commerce with the United States.

Liverpool Markets.

COTTON.—The circulars reports an active market, and an advance in prices as compared with the quotations of the previous Friday of 1-8d per lb., the improvement being principally on the middling qualities. The official quotations are New Orleans middling 6 7-16d; fair 7d; Uplands middling 6¼d; fair 6⅝d; good 6¾d a 6⅞; inferior 4¾d a 5¼. The sales of the week amounted to 98,000 bales, of which speculators took 38,000 and exporters 7,000. The sales on Friday amounted to 10,000 bales, including 2000 on speculation and for export, the market closing quiet at the above prices. The stock in port was estimated at 518,000 bales, of which 368,000 was American. The trade was supposed to have a good supply on hand.

Trade in Manchester.—Buyers of goods and yarns were demanding a reduction from the current rates, but no concessions had been made.

Breadstuffs.—The Brokers' circulars report the market for flour steady, and prices a trifle higher than at the departure of the Persia. It calls Western canal 26s a 32s; Ohio 30s a 36s. Wheat quiet at former rates. Corn 1s a 1s 6d higher; all descriptions selling at 29s a 30s.— The quantity on immediate offer being small.

Messrs. Brown, Shipley & Co. quote Philadelphia and Baltimore at 28s a 34s. Canadian 20s 6d a 30s 6d. Ohio 3[illegible] White wheat 10s 3d a 10s 6d; red 9s 2d a 9s 9d. Some circulars quote white wheat at 9s a 11s, and red at 9s a 10s.

Provisions.—Messrs. Richardson, Spence & Co., Bigland, Athya & Co., James McHenry & Co., and others, agree in reporting beef unchanged, with but little speculative enquiry, and a rather unsettled market. Pork firm and market bare, with buyers of prime Western mess at 80s; Eastern at 85s a 87s 6d. An active speculative demand for bacon. Lard advanced 6d; good quoted at 53s a 53s 6d, on the spot and 60s to arrive.

Produce.—Brokers' circular. Sugars had advanced 6d per cwt. Molasses a shade higher. Coffee firm at previous figures.

SECOND DESPATCH.

A Man Killed by a Member of Congress.

WASHINGTON, 8th.

Mr Herbert a member of the House from California, who shot the head waiter at Willard's Hotel this morning, killing him instantly, has been arrested, and the matter is undergoing investigation. The circumstances, as nearly as can be at present ascertained, are that while Mr Herbert was taking a late breakfast at the public table of the hotel, a waiter gave him some insolence, when Mr H. called for another waiter, who came, and also treated him insolently. It is said that two or three other waiters then come up and commenced an assault upon Mr Herbert with chairs, plates, dishes, &c. They then grappled with him, when several gentlemen standing by interfered, but retreated on being turned upon by the waiters. Mr H's friends represent that he fired only when it became quite evident that it was the design of the waiters to kill him, and that after one was killed two others continued assaulting him until he was rescued by his friends. Mr Herbert is aided by counsel. Gen. Lane and Mr McKay of California saw the whole affair.

[The despatch does not inform us how the assault was provoked. It is singular that a parcel of waiters should coolly attempt a man's life at a public table.]

Congressional.

SENATE. On motion of Mr Mason, the Senate took up the resolution from the Com. on Foreign Relations, declaring the notice given by the President to Denmark, to terminate the treaty regulating the Sound Dues, sufficient, and that no other act of legislation is necessary to put an end to the treaty.

Mr Stuart moved to strike out the latter part "that no other" &c.

Mr Sumner argued that the treaty abrogating power was kindred in character to the war making power, which was expressly lodged in Congress. The abrogation of a treaty might be a prelude to war. Former usage was in favor of the joint action of the two Houses. He reviewed the reasons given by the committee in their report for the change proposed. The language of this treaty had been copied in other treaties which contain this provision, and it is therefore an important question. Four of these treaties are with England, those with France, and others with Russia, Brazil, Mexico, the Netherlands and other governments, and one of them was that by virtue of which our squadron is now maintained on the African coast to prevent the slave trade. Another question arose relative to the discriminating duties to which Danish vessels would be subject in the event of abrogating the treaty, and it is important to decide whether the treaty is abrogated in conformity with our laws or not.

Mr Stuart said that when the resolution was adopted authorizing the President to give notice to Denmark, it was done as business is usually done in executive session, without much consideration. He alluded to the fact that the President in his annual message recommended that the treaty be terminated by giving the notice stipulated. This showed his opinion that it was a subject for the action of Congress, and not for the Senate in executive session; but as the President was the only organ of communication with a foreign power, any notice he might have given Denmark was binding on her; inasmuch as she could not go behind the notice to see whether or not it had been given upon proper authority; and if binding upon Denmark it must likewise be binding in this country.

Mr Seward sustained Mr Sumner's views.

Mr Clayton sustained the action of the Committee on Foreign Relations—advocating the resolution.

Mr Crittenden desired to know, if the President could not by his own act terminate the treaty, and if the Senate had given him authority to terminate it at a specified time, how could he by his own act extend the time? After the treaty had come to an end by its own limitation what authority has the President to revive it? Yet he had extended the time two months, and how did the two countries now stand? Was there any treaty between them, or not? It seemed to him a very grave question, which deserved further consideration. He thought this government had got into a bad fix, and the best thing would be to consider [illegible]

the President to retract the notice altogether, and leave the treaty in force as before. Denmark was a poor country, depending upon these Sound Dues for support, and as it was a small sum annually which this country had to pay, it would be better to submit to it, and not run the risk of involving the country in a war about so small an affair.

Messrs Hale, Toombs, Collamer and Benjamin opposed the resolution. Mr Bayard supported it.

The House, as well as the Senate, adopted the conference report on the bill to amend the bounty law of 1855. The bill provides that parol evidence, where no record exists, may be admitted to prove military service performed—construes the 9th section of the act of '55 to embrace officers, marines, seamen and other persons engaged in the naval service during the revolutionary war, and their widows and minor children, and allowing to compute the time of service one day for every 20 miles from the place where the troops organized to muster, and also on their return after discharge.

On motion of Mr Pennington, it was resolved that the President be requested to communicate, if compatible with the public interests, any information in his possession touching the recent disturbances at Panama, and the interruption on either of the routes on foreign territory between the Atlantic and Pacific, and what measures have been taken for the protection of American interests relative to the same.

The House resumed the consideration of its disagreement to the Senate's amendments to the Deficiency Appropriation bill.

Mr. Giddings earnestly attacked an item for the expenses of the Judiciary in Ohio, and was warmly condemning the appropriation of money to discharge arrearages contracted for returning fugitive slaves to Kentucky, when he suddenly fainted and fell to the floor. Several members immediately conveyed him to a sofa near an open window. A profound sensation was occasioned by the accident, and a recess was spoken of, when it was moved to change the order of business and receive reports for an hour.

Mr. Giddings soon returned to consciousness, and was conducted to his residence.

The motion to receive reports was agreed to, and Mr. Campbell from the committee of Ways and Means reported the Post Office and Ocean Mail Steamer appropriation bills. Adjourned.

Later from Panama.

CHARLESTON, 9th.

An arrival at this port from Aspinwall brings dates to the 24th ult. Everything was quiet at Panama. The sloop-of-war St Mary's had arrived there. Her commander immediately inquired into the cause of the late outrage, and a warm correspondence had taken place between him and the Governor of Panama. It was believed that the riot originated in a desire for plunder.

California Steamers,
Carrying the United States Mail

5th and 20th of each Month.

Reduced Prices. 100 lbs. Baggage Free.

Through Tickets, including transit of the Isthmus, via Panama R. R.

By order of the Postmaster General, the United States Mail Steamers will hereafter be despatched from New York direct to Aspinwall, on the 5th and 20th of each month.

Passengers are landed at the Railroad Depot, Aspinwall, and conveyed across to the Pacific Steamers without any extra expense. This is the only line giving entire through tickets, including meals, on the Isthmus.

Transit made in four hours, entirely by daylight, thus avoiding the great exposure of night in open boats to fever and ague, and 25 miles of dangerous lake and river navigation over rocks and shoals.

Arrangements have now been completed so that the regular U. S. Pacific Mail Steamer will leave Panama for San Francisco immediately on arrival of the Atlantic Mails and passengers, thus securing passengers by the Mail Line a sure and short passage, without any detention on the Isthmus.

Tickets must be signed by one of the Company's Agents before they will be recognized by the Agent at Panama, and Tickets thus signed can be obtained of the only authorized Agent for the Atlantic and Pacific Mail Steamship Companies, in this city. ARNOLD'S COMBINED

FOOT-STOVE, LANTERN,
....AND....
NURSE-LAMP,

ALBERT NOYES having purchased the exclusive right for manufacturing and vending in Penobscot county the above valuable invention, is now prepared to offer them to the public.

As a FOOT STOVE, it answers an excellent purpose, as it can be sufficiently heated in less than one minute to warm and dry the feet in the coldest winter weather, and will be found to be an indispensable article in traveling. It is heated by an oil, alcohol, or fluid lamp, the flame of which is protected from every external object.

As a LANTERN, it answers all the usual purposes, and is less likely to be overset, or get broken, and can be used as a house lamp with equal advantage

As a NURSE LAMP, and in cases of sickness, it is of great advantage in keeping drinks or medicines warm, beside giving the light desired, and for cooking in small quantities. For making tea, &c., it will be found very convenient, as a quart of water can be boiled in fifteen minutes, and a flat-iron heat in the same length of time.

In fact, the various purposes to which this neat apparatus can be put may be readily conjectured by every one. No further description is required, as no one can misunderstand its general utility. To say any thing more respecting its adaptability to a hundred purposes would just be telling what our readers can all see at once for themselves.

For sale, wholesale and retail, at No's 15, 17 and 19 Central Street, Bangor.

The Great European Cough Remedy.

Important to the Consumptive and the Public generally. The celebrated

Universal Cough Mixture

IS a safe and effectual Remedy for Coughs of every description, whether of children or adults, of recent or long standing.

PREPARED ONLY BY
REV. WALTER CLARKE,
Sole Proprietor, Cornishville, Maine.

Within the last twelve months thousands of bottles of the Universal Cough Mixture have been sold in the State of Maine alone, and everywhere its extraordinary power in relieving and curing diseases of the Chest and Lungs, is gratefully acknowledged; and especially in cases of obstinate and long standing Coughs, it speedily allays the unpleasant sensation in the throat which excites coughing, it promotes free and easy expectoration, and by removing the exciting cause of the cough, it frequently enables the sufferers to enjoy natural and refreshing sleep, who for weeks had been deprived of that blessing.

Sold in trial bottles, 25 cents each; large bottles, each containing the quantity of four small ones, 75 cents each.

Extract of a letter from Daniel Adams, Esq., of Bowdoinham, Maine.

FEBRUARY, 17th, 1853.

To Rev. Walter Clark. Dear Sir—The bottle of Cough Mixture which I bought of you at Topsham had the desired effect on my wife. She had been afflicted with a cough for two years—that bottle entirely removed it.

From Rev. Jesse Hoyt, Lewiston Falls.

BRO. CLARKE—Every bottle of the Universal Cough Mixture which you left with me, is sold—and I have several applications for more. As far as heard from all have been perfectly satisfied with the medicine. One man, who had a cough of long standing, attended with tightness of the chest and shortness of breath, so that he was laid aside from business, purchased one large bottle, and before he had taken one third of it, was perfectly cured, and has had no cough since. He says it is the best medicine in the world, and cannot be recommended too highly.

JESSE HAYES.

From Mr. Fletcher Chick, agent for North Dixmont, Maine.

DEAR SIR—A number of the most extraordinary cures have been effected by your Universal Cough Mixture in this place. Several who had coughs of a year's standing, and others who have been doctored six months without receiving any benefit, have been speedily cured by the Universal Cough Mixture.

From Mrs. Hubbard, Thorndike, Me.

FEBRUARY 1, 1854.

To Rev. Walter Clark. Dear Sir—This certifies that I have used one bottle of your Universal Cough Mixture for a distressing cough and soreness in the lungs. I had previously taken several kinds of medicine, and had been under the care of several physicians, without obtaining the least relief, happily your Universal Cough Mixture was recommended to me. I procured a bottle, which I began to take according to directions on the label, by which in a few days I was entirely cured.

MARGARET P. HUBBARD.

Sold wholesale by the Proprietor, Cornishville, Maine.

General Agents for Maine—G. F. Sargent & Co, Druggists, No. 3 corner Smith's Block, Bangor—and H. H. Hay, Portland.

LET US REASON TOGETHER

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.
WHY ARE WE SICK?

IT has been the lot of the human race to be weighed down by disease and suffering. HOLLOWAY'S PILLS are specially adapted to the relief of the WEAK, the NERVOUS, the DELICATE, and the INFIRM, of all climes, ages, sexes, and constitutions. Professor Holloway personally superintends the manufacture of his medicines in the United States, and offers them to a free and enlightened people as the best remedy the world ever saw for the removal of disease.

These Pills Purify the Blood.

These famous Pills are expressly combined to operate on the stomach, the liver, the kidneys, the lungs, the skin, and the bowels, correcting any derangement in their functions, purifying the blood, the very fountain of life, and thus curing disease in all its forms.

Dyspepsia & Liver Complaint.

Nearly half the human race have taken these Pills. It has been proved in all parts of the world that nothing has been found equal to them in cases of disorders of the liver, dyspepsia, and stomach complaints generally. They soon give a healthy tone to these organs, however much deranged, and when all other means have failed.

General Debility. Ill Health.

Many of the most despotic Governments have opened their Custom Houses to the introduction of these Pills, that they may become the medicine of the masses. Learned Colleges admit that this medicine is the best remedy ever known for persons of delicate health, or where the system has been impaired, as its invigorating properties never fail to afford relief.

Female Complaints.

No Female, young or old should be without this celebrated medicine. It corrects and regulates the monthly courses, at all periods, acting in many cases like a charm. It is also the best and safest medicine that can be given to children of all ages, and for any complaint—consequently no family should be without it.

Holloway's Pills are the best remedy known in the world for the following Diseases:

Asthma
Bowel Complaints
Coughs
Colds
Chest Diseases
Costiveness
Dyspepsia
Diarrhœa
Dropsy
Debility
Fever and Ague
Female Complaints
Headaches
Indigestion
Influenza
Inflammation
Inward Weakness
Lowness of Spirits
Piles
Stone and Gravel
Secondary Symptoms
Venereal Affections
Worms of all kinds

Sold at the Manufactories of Professor HOLLOWAY, 80 Maiden Lane, New York, and 244 Strand, London, and by all respectable Druggists and Dealers of Medicines throughout the United States, and the civilized world, in boxes, at 25 cts., 62½ cents, and $1 each.

There is a considerable saving by taking the larger sizes.

N. B. Directions for the guidance of patients in every disorder are affixed to each box.

MR. SMITH'S ADVENTURE.

BY FRANCIS [illegible]

Continued.

"MR. WILLIAM SMYTHE:—Your uncle begged me to write, because he has gout in his hand, and can't hold a pen. begs me to say that he wishes you all happiness, but he can't think of be present at the ceremony. He sends herewith a hundred guineas, and a lette credit on his banker of Paris, and will exp you as soon as the honeymoon in your on the continent are ended.

Humbly wishing you joy, for myself main, Yours to command,

SIMON SNOW

"I don't know this Simon Snow," thou Smith, "but I suppose he's my uncle's st ard. The fellow thinks to compliment by spelling my name Smythe, but Smith is good enough for me. It's a res table family, but contains too many Joh

Of course he pocketed the money with demurring, and prepared to go through ceremony with the ease, grace and nonch ance of a man of the world. He was int duced to a great many people and sho hands so many times that his shoulder ach After breakfast the carriage was announc The leave taking was hurried through, happy couple escaped from their friends a took their seats, the postillions plied whip an spur, in anticipation of liberal fees, and a they flew behind four spanking bays at a ling rate down the same road, up which th unconscious bridegroom had strolled in m ancholy mood that very morning.

As he glanced out of the window, he sa a fat pedestrian, in drab gaiters, wiping h perspiring forehead and toiling in the dus Smith smiled. If anything can add to the gratification of being whirled along in a easy carriage, it is to contrast it with the toils of pedestrianism on a dusty road. Bu little did Mr. Smith suspect who that unfor nate was. While Mr. and Mrs Smith wer speeding on their bridal tour, let us follow up the fat little pedestrian. Overcome with th heat of the weather, and his own exertions he sat down on a stone.

"Vot an 'orid 'ot day!" he exclaimed, in the purest cockney vernacular, as he mop ped his crimson forehead with his thick ban danna. "Hi enough to rost an Ottentot! Vo go—to think of that ere hengine running off the rail and spilin all the passengers Not a hescape for me! Wonder if I ham i the right direction! That looks as if it migh be the 'ouse. 'Ullo, you, sir!"

The last words were addressed to a ser vant in livery whom we have before encoun tered, and who was now strolling along, visibly affected by campagne before break fast.

"Who are you speaking to?" said he, lof tily.

"To you," was the reply. "Whose 'ous is that?"

"Mr. Ruggles's."

"I thought so. He's your master hey?"

The servant nodded.

"Vell, you're expecting somebody, a'int ye now?"

"Oh, no," replied the servant

"Nobody," asked the pedestrian coaxing ly, and placing a tip in the hands of the ser vant.

"No, nobody."

"Vhere's your young lady?"

"Gone off."

"Gone off!" exclaimed the cockney, "vher, and with whom?"

"With her husband."

"Er 'usband—it ain't possible!" cried the cockney.

"Vot's your name?" cried the cock ney.

"Sam."

"Then, Sam, show me to your master—I must see him hinstantly—hinstantly," cried the little cockney, with a tragic air.

There was something so imperative in his manner that the servant did not hesitate to comply with his demand. He took him into the house, and ushered him into the pres ence of Mr. Ruggles. There was nothing very jolly in parting with an only daugh ter, and even Ruggles who was one of the heartiest of mortals, left alone in his draw ing room while his wife had gone upstairs
